Rev Montreal Howell Scholarship Criteria

Rev. Montreal Howell Scholarships are awarded annually, for education through the undergraduate level. Qualified applicants are encouraged to apply based on the criteria below:

1. Preference will be given to graduating seniors from Wilkes County or applicants who have roots that tie back to Rev. Montreal Howell or the Thankful Community
2. Scholarship awards depend upon funds available and the number of eligible applicants. For 2024 – Two $1000 scholarships will be granted.
3. Awards will be paid directly to the designated educational institution.
4. Awards will be based on:
 - Minimum GPA of 2.75
 - Student character: Applicant must possess an encouraging and winning attitude in their community, exemplifying the life and witness of Rev. Montreal Howell. They should demonstrate integrity and responsibility.
 - Extracurricular activities: Including school, church, community activities and after school/summer employment.
5. Applicant must submit the following information with the application:
 - Cover letter composed by the applicant
 - Completed application form
 - Current school transcript
 - One letter of recommendation

Deadline for applications is Wednesday, May 15, 2024.

Important Note: All application documents must be submitted and received by the May 15, 2024 deadline. Incomplete applications cannot be reviewed for consideration by the Scholarship Committee.
